"Oh, Promise Me!"
At some time in her life Cupid pleads in every woman's ear, and when that time comes it is a woman's duty to think twice before she answers. She should think once for herself, and once for the man who has chosen her for his life companion. If she is suffering from a torturing, dragging weakness or disease so prevalent with her sex, she has no right to answer "Yes" until her health is restored. If she then, she will be wretched and ill herself and her home will be an unhappy one. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific remedy that cures all weakness, disease, disorder and derangement of the delicate and important feminine organs. It is not a "cure-all," but a medicine devised to correct this one class of disorders and no other. It has accomplished its purpose in tens of thousands of cases, as is shown by tens of thousands of testimonials of the grateful patients themselves. It imparts vigor and vitality to the entire womanly organism, and is the best of all nerve tonics and restoratives. It fits for wifehood and motherhood. It transforms weak, nervous, despondent invalids into healthy, happy women.
"I was so weak I could scarcely walk about the house," writes Mrs. Mattie Scruggs, of Allen's Creek, Amherst Co., Va. "I was reduced to a mere skeleton. I was never free from pain in the back and head and could not sleep at night. I bought three bottles of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and 'Golden Medical Discovery' and two vials of 'Pleasant Pellets.' After taking these six weeks I felt like a new person; slept well and gained in flesh. I am doing all my own housework and we have nice in the family."
A man or woman who neglects constipation suffers from slow poisoning. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. One little "Pellet" is a gentle laxative, and two a mild cathartic. All medicine dealers sell a gentle laxative. No other pills are "just as good."

It suited.
The other afternoon I was in a gentleman's outfitting shop when a customer came in to purchase a hat. He tried on several and was evidently hard to please, the counter becoming covered with the rejected. At last the salesman picked up a brown felt bowler, brushed it round with his arm and extended it admiringly.
"These are being very much worn this season, sir," he explained.
"Are they?" said the customer thoughtfully, surveying himself in the mirror, with his hat on his head. "Do you think it suits me?"
"Suits you to perfection, sir, if the fit's right."
"Yes, it fits very well. So you think I had better have it?"
"I don't think you could do better, sir."
"No, I don't think I could, so I won't have a new one."
The salesman had been praising up the old hat.—Pearson's Weekly.

A "Steele Bargain."
Adam Steele of Shelby county once rented a tanyard to a Mr. Jones on shares. His idea was to risk in the business only the use of his tanyard and not to incur any further liability. So he protected himself by the following safe clause in the contract:
"If anything is made, the said Steele is to have it, and if anything is lost the said Jones is to lose it."
And this is known in Shelby as a regular Adam Steele bargain to this day.—Lexington (Ky.) Gazette.

Quite Another Question.
"I could die for you!" he cried passionately.
"Of course," she replied. "But would you?"
Some girls are so practical and pragmatic, you know.—Chicago Post.

The Pony Express.
W. F. Bailey contributes to The Century an article on "The Pony Express," between St. Joseph, Mo., and San Francisco. Mr. Bailey says:
At first the schedule was fixed at 10 days, an average of 8 miles an hour from start to finish. This was cut down to 8 days, requiring an average speed of 10 miles. The quickest trip made was in carrying President Lincoln's inaugural address, which was done in 7 days and 17 hours, an average speed of 10.7 miles per hour, the fastest time of any one rider being 120 miles, from Smith's Creek to Fort Churchill, by Pony Bob, in 8 hours and 10 minutes, or 14.7 miles per hour. Considering the distance and difficulties encountered, such as hostile Indians, road agents, floods and snowstorms, and accidents to horses and riders, the schedule was maintained to an astonishing degree. The service created the greatest enthusiasm not only among the employees, but also in the ranks of stage employees, freighters and residents along the route. To ride a "pony" in difficulty was a privilege, and was to the man who would so much as throw a stone in the way.

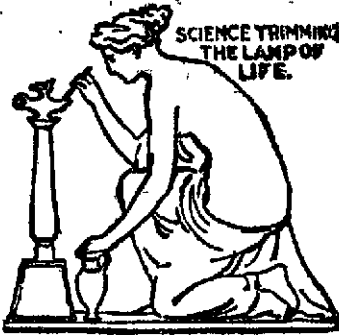

No Cause for Alarm.
"Look here," said the barber to the restless man in the chair, "if you don't keep still I'm liable to cut your throat."
"Oh, I'm not afraid of that," replied the helpless victim, "as long as you continue to use that razor."—Chicago News.

The Sequence of Events.
"The doctors had a consultation yesterday."
"What was the result?"
"I understand that the family lawyers are now in secret session."—Brooklyn Life.

Healthy Cheerfulness.
Do not allow a melancholy person to enter the sickroom. There is nothing so absolutely necessary to an invalid as cheerful companions. A nervous woman may be thrown into a relapse by a well meaning but mischief making friend relating to her how a mutual friend suffered with a similar disease.

QUESTIONS OF ELIGIBILITY.

"Jean Valjean" correspondent of the Eureka Sentinel still insists that Judge Fitzgerald is not ineligible for United States Senator and quotes Section 2 of Article VI of the State Constitution to which the JOURNAL last week referred, in answer to the Sentinel correspondent's suggestion of the Judge for the position. That Section declares that "Supreme and District Judges shall be ineligible to any office, other than a judicial one, during the term for which they shall have been elected; and all elections or appointments of any such judges by the people, Legislature or otherwise, during such period to any office, other than judicial, shall be void."

We are afraid that the Sentinel correspondent is mistaken in his impression that the above does not apply to any except State officers, such as the Governorship, etc., as it says "any office," which by reasonable construction applies to the United States States Senatorship, which certainly is not a judicial office. We believe, moreover, that Judge Fitzgerald will concur with the JOURNAL in its interpretation of the quoted Constitutional clause, if his opinion was requested, and the JOURNAL would, moreover, accept such decision as correct, for it knows that it would be a sound and honest one. At one time Judge Fitzgerald could easily have been nominated and elected Governor, but for the quoted clause, which he, himself, urged, if we are not mistaken, as the reason why he could not become a candidate for that office. The reason why the JOURNAL again refers to the subject is that the Senatorial matter is badly muddled enough already, and that it should not be made more so by presenting the name of a gentleman whose merited popularity would insure a following, which would be useless to him if ineligible to the office, and which might be injurious to some other good man whose eligibility could not be questioned. As perhaps Judge Fitzgerald himself knows, the JOURNAL feels as friendly, personally and politically, toward him as any of his greatest admirers, and that the raising of the question at this time, which others would certainly raise later on, is no wise actuated by an unfriendly spirit towards as able and honest a man as to-day treads the soil of the State of Nevada.

THE GUBERNATORIAL MUDDLE.

What is going to be the result of Judge Fitzgerald's decision, throwing out 171 votes in precincts in Eureka county? The District Judges decision was rendered upon a case of precisely the same character and from the same county, from a decision rendered by the Supreme Court two years ago—the case of Sweeney vs. Hjal. In that case, as we understand it, the entire vote of the rejected precincts was thrown out and not counted for any of the candidates, inclusive or exclusive of the contesting parties. If the JOURNAL understands it correctly, the vote for Presidential Electors, Congressman and Justice of the Supreme Court went overboard with the others, but as it made no change in the result, it attracted little or no attention. It seems to be a question of cold law, and should, as it doubtless will be, so treated by the Supreme Court. With the JOURNAL, it is a sort of rattlesnake and polecat contest, so far as the result is concerned, and it can view it from an unprejudiced standpoint.

While it seems to us hard that so many persons should be disfranchised because of some technicalities for which they, or at least, but few of them were responsible, it also seems but fair that if the votes are thrown out for one candidate, it should affect all alike, from Governor to Constable, for the technical omissions or commissions certainly apply to all, and if they hold good on the matter of the Assessorship it seems but just that it should include the entire ballot from top to bottom. If we had our way, every honest ballot cast in the State should be counted as it read, and no little informality or technicality should prevail against it. As, however, the elections must be regulated by law, which prescribes the manner and details concerning their conduct, which should be carried out as nearly as possible, but in all violations of the law, which affect the validity of the vote at any precinct, all candidates voted for should be treated alike and no distinction made in the offices of Governor, Congressman or School Trustees. We believe that the thrown out precincts affect no State office except the Governorship. May the one who is legally entitled to it get it.

THIS EDITORIAL COST SIXTEEN MEN'S LIVES.

The following is the editorial which appeared in the Wilmington Record of Wilmington, North Carolina, and which led to a demolition of the newspaper office and the death of sixteen men, most all colored, by violence. The Record was published by negroes: "We suggest that the whites guard their women more closely, thus giving no opportunity for the human fiend, be he white or black. You leave your goods out of doors and then complain because they are taken away. Poor whitemen are careless in the matter of protecting their women, especially on farms. They are careless of their conduct towards them, and our experience among the poor white people in the country teaches that the women of that race are not any more particular in the matter of clandestine meetings with colored men than are the white men with colored women. Meetings of this kind go on for some time until the women's infatuation or the man's boldness brings attention to them and the man is lynched. Every negro lynched is called a 'big, burly, black brute,' when in fact many of those who have thus been dealt with had white men for their fathers, and were not black and burly, but were sufficiently attractive for white girls of culture and refinement to fall in love with them, as is well known to all."

Important to Working Men.

I have just received a complete and large stock of gents' furnishing goods, overalls, underwear, socks, gloves, neckties, collars, cuffs, etc., direct from the factory. Also the celebrated Bull Bitchies and Levi Strauss overalls in all sizes, which I am selling at prices that defy competition. I have always on hand a complete stock of all the leading brands of cigars, cigarettes and tobacco which I sell at wholesale and retail. A free employment office in connection with the store.

In the Matter of the Estate of C. C. Fowling, Deceased.

Notice is hereby given that the undersigned has been appointed administratrix of the estate of C. C. Fowling, deceased, and having duly qualified as such, letters of administration on the said estate have been duly issued to her on this, the sixth day of December, 1898. Notice is further given that all persons having claims against the said estate of C. C. Fowling, deceased, must present them to the Clerk of the above-entitled Court, within sixty days from the first publication of this notice, or they will be forever barred. CLARA A. FOWLING, Administratrix of the Estate of C. C. Fowling, Deceased. Dated at Reno, Nevada, this 6th Day of December, 1898.

Out of Society.

Stewart has been thrown by Lamy. The parting of the way was not encountered without a tear; but the aristocratic, conscientious professor cannot stoop to keep company with a man who does not pay his bills. And the poor grand old warhorse of the Silver party, without Lamy's protecting wing, snobbling influence and dignified support, will surely have to obtain gilded references to gain an entrance into society.—Genoa Courier.

Hale & Norcross.

The Hale & Norcross company is issuing certificates to-day of the new issue of capital stock, $3 par value, which will enable dealers to trade on a tax of 6 per 100 shares, instead of $2, as formerly, a very material saving. The special meeting of the shareholders to act upon the reincorporation of the company will be held on Friday, December 30.—Virginia Report.

Card of Thanks.

I desire to thank the many friends, who, by their kind acts and consolation, did so much to lighten the weight of sorrow caused by the death of my late husband and should their cup ever be as full, may they receive the same considerate treatment.

MRS. G. A. FRICK.

Take Notice.

All persons having claims against the Nevada Hospital for Mental Diseases will present the same to the Superintendent at his office, on or before Monday, Dec. 26, 1898, as no claims can be legally paid after the end of the term.

Heat and Fuel Savers.

How long are you going to "get along" with that old cookstove that burns more fuel than a furnace and heats the outdoors more than does the oven?

A very little money will buy one of our cookstoves—you'll save the price in fuel in one season. It will keep the heat where it ought to be, and cook your food as it ought to be cooked. Come in and examine them.

About 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning there was an alarm of fire. The alarm was caused by a defective fuse in the chimney at the house of Louis Berrum in Powning's Addition. Slight damage to the roof was the only result.

The Journal's office was yesterday furnished with a brand new stove of the Cole's hot blast, air tight variety. It's a daisy and warms up the whole establishment to Summer heat upon but small provocation in the way of fuel.

The types are kicking because Christmas and New Year's come on Sunday, which cuts them off from two days' rest. But they would kick just the same if they were going to be hung, and could choose the day for their execution.

As the result of a drunken quarrel two "noble red men" endeavored to annihilate each other yesterday. One struck the other over the head with a heavy piece of iron pipe and came near inflicting a fatal wound. It is too bad that the person who sold them the whisky is not known.

Loonbarrrow, the Cash Grocer, corner of Commercial Row and Sierra streets, is still in the lead for lowest prices for cash on all of his groceries, &c. Some of his fellow merchants say he is selling below cost to catch you; don't you believe it; he is not here for his health, but will give you a fair and square equivalent for your money, and he makes a reasonable profit on everything he sells.

Brannan Reported to be Dying Last Evening.

Carson was all excitement last evening over the shooting affair of the afternoon and it is the one topic of conversation to-day, and public sentiment doesn't run all one way either. In case Brannan dies it looks as though there might be several trials before a jury is found to agree.

Brannan rested as well last night as could be expected and this morning at 6:30 the doctors commenced to operate on him. They found that the intestines were pierced in seven places by the bullet which ranged downward and lodged probably in the hip. The abrasions were sewed up and the patient was under the influence of chloroform two and one-quarter hours. Drs. Haffaker, Guinan and Thoman are attending the wounded man and successfully performed the delicate operation of this morning. It was not deemed expedient to make any attempt to extract or even definitely locate the bullet at the present time.

The physicians seem to be of the opinion that Brannan has a chance to recover, but it is not of the best by any means.

Jim Moss, who did the shooting, passed a bad night in jail and takes the affair very hard. He continually repeats the hope that Brannan will not die, but maintains that he could not help doing as he did. He says he would have received a terrible beating if he had not defended himself.

The officers are of the opinion, so far as The News learns, that no one but the two participants were actually witnesses of the shooting.

Attorney Ed. T. Dupuis has been engaged to defend Moss and evidently is as confident of clearing his client as District Attorney McGowan is of convicting him.

It is rumored that Brannan would have been married next Sunday.

The above is taken from the Carson News of last evening. A letter received here from Carson last night says: "Matt Brannan is dying from a gun shot wound received yesterday, and will probably be dead before this reaches you."

Mine Host, the K. of P.

Amity Lodge No. 8, held a social gathering last night at which the members and a number of invited guests passed an enjoyable evening.

A program had been arranged, in which Fred and Frank Julien rendered a violin duet with piano accompaniment by Mrs. Julien, which was followed by a declamation by F. P. Daup, piano solo by Mrs. Lynn Sessions and a recitation by Mrs. Shearer. Each number was greeted by hearty applause as were all selections given by those favorites.

After the program had been rendered dancing was engaged in until the supper hour, when all repaired to the banquet room and partook of tamales, coffee, cake and numerous other good things. During the feast the time was passed with many appropriate remarks by different ones, the principal speakers being John Edwards Bray and Rev. E. Vernon Jones. Mr. Jones' remarks were in a humorous vein and created much merriment. He stated that this had been the first time he had attempted to dissect a tamale, and by comparisons drawn it was understood that if there were hotter things they were not of the earth earthly.

After all had been satisfied dancing was resumed and continued until a late hour. All present voted the K. of P. royal entertainers, and hoped that they might be fortunate enough to enjoy many more such social events.

Wedding Calore.

Not by one and two but by trios and quartets daily come the ardent lovers to be "spliced" in Reno. County Clerk Porter should have an assistant to help him get out the necessary licenses for those who are anxious to embrace the matrimonial state. Three couples from California were wedded here yesterday they, were in the County Clerk's office at one time, all on the business of securing marriage licenses.

Having been thrown together under such similar circumstances, these seekers after conjugal bliss naturally drew together and arranged for the weddings to take place simultaneously. At the Riverside Hotel they prepared for the event that bound them together for good or evil. The Rev. G. E. Jones of the M. E. Church was called in to perform the ceremonies, and of course George Cheek was requested to act as best man. George is an adept in this capacity, he has perhaps served as groomsman oftener than any man in Reno. The ceremonies were performed in the beautiful parlors at the Riverside, and at the conclusion the happy party partook of a wedding banquet at which George presided. Two other marriages were also celebrated in town yesterday, making five in all.

This is the shortest day in the year. The Journal force is more interested, however, in the shortest night, as their work is principally between the going down of the sun and the rising thereof.

We wonder how some of the editors who have since been engaged by Stewart for the season would like to see in print their verbal expressions concerning the "grand old man," when he was wandering over the State trying to find someone to shake hands with, last Winter.

In Sunday's Appeal was a cowardly and contemptible item in which that paper endeavored to make it appear that the JOURNAL was engaged in a journalistic warfare with an obscure sheet called the Argonaut published in Elko by a malodorous wind puff whose name we never knew, or have forgotten. Shortly after the change of management, the JOURNAL made some allusion to a ridiculous blunder in that sheet, which so inflated the fellow that he made the JOURNAL the subject of all of his so-called editorial matter for a number of days, in the hope, evidently, of again being noticed by this paper. The JOURNAL didn't mind it, supposing that the poor devil was honestly trying to earn the hundred and odd dollars paid last summer for the use of the sheet for the season, by Stewart's agents' deputy at Elko. Never finding anything worth republishing in the sheet in the way of news, for the last two weeks, it has been thrown unshucked into the waste basket with other valueless exchanges, for the benefit of the office devil, who sells the unmatted papers to a China wash house.

As for the editor of the Appeal, he is entitled to such consideration as the artificial consequence resulting from late election confers. He says he "likes a little journalistic sparring." If so, pitch into the JOURNAL to your heart's content. Your principal grievance appears to be that a writer on this paper has lived more years than you. He has, and he hopes that every one of them has been more reputable and useful than any one of yours. His age may be a subject for your derision but he is not old enough, nor ever will be, to ask immunity from you or anyone else on account of his years, either in journalistic or other encounters. You can furthermore rest assured that he never has, nor never will resort to the courts to redress any injury he may receive, either in reputation or person. So come out in manly fashion and don't cowardly skulk responsibility by falsely representing that some chipmunk is tearing the daylight out of the JOURNAL. Do it yourself if you can. Throw aside gloves and hammer away with bare fists. We will be generous with you even in defeat, and will not call upon the minions of the law if you metaphorically or literally knock the "eternal stuffing" out of us.
